3.0 Oregon Health Authority (OHA) Updates	There was not an Innovator Agent present at our meeting, but Commissioner Court Boice spoke to how encouraged he has been by the support of the Oregon Health Authority (OHA) and the local Coordinated Care Organizations throughout the last several weeks in regards to the transition of Curry Public Health being transitioned back to the oversight of the Oregon Health Authority, and Behavioral Health to be contracted by ADAPT. He is hopeful that our community members will continued to received the needed support through ADAPT which has been working successfully in Southern Oregon for many year. Below is a reminder of resources provided by the OHA: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The Safe and Strong Help Line at 1- 800-923-HELP(4357) is available to all Oregonian’s at no cost for crisis support, connection to resources and referrals to locally available assistance. The phone line was developed in partnership with Lines for Life and is staffed with qualified mental health professionals. - Read more at https://www.linesforlife.org/obhs/ Racial Equity Support Line The Racial Equity Support Line is a service led and staffed by people with lived experience of racism. Staff offer support to those who are feeling the emotional impacts of racist violence and microaggressions, as well as the emotional impacts of immigration struggles and other cross-cultural issues. https://www.linesforlife.org/racial-equity-support - You Are Not Alone resource: Digital advertising continues to promote the You Are Not Alone https://govstatus.egov.com/or-dhs-not-alone resource for reducing isolation and to prevent and address abuse, neglect and exploitation during the pandemic. Promotional materials are available in 12 languages on its website. Please share with your community! Please contact Nat Jacobs nat.jacobs@state.or.us, OHA Innovator Agent with any questions
